One Commits Suicide by Jumping in River, and the Other Falls Into a Well.

Into a Well.

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., March 20.—
"Well, I'm going; good-by," and Farror Turner, a well-known negro about the town, jumped from the wharf behind the Davis coal yard into the Pasquotank River, never to rise again. Turner, in company with several other negroes. Sunday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock were sitting on the wharf, On the ground set a guart bottle of whiskey, when, without a moment's notice, he sprang to his feet and using the words quoted above, which proved to be in reality his last. The whole affair can be attributed to a Sunday brawl, as Turner was seen an hour before by a party of citizens attempting to push overboard several logs that lay alongside of the wharf and was then in an ugly mood.

The news that a negro had committed suicide by jumping overboard, apread rapidly, and in less than an hour there were hundreds of persons on the water front watching those who had dragnets trying to bring the body to the surface. The body was recovered about 5 o'clock this afterneon.

INSPECTOR CAUGHT UNDER CARS AND CRUSHED TO DEATH

[Special to The Times-Dispatch 1 [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 30.—William McCall, an employe of the Southern Rallway, was run over and instantly killed in the Southern yards here yesterday afternoon.

McCall, who was an air inspector, was at work under a freight car inspecting the air connections, when through some mistake, a string of freight cars were switched onto the track upon which the car under which he was working was standing. The unfortunate man was thrown under the wheels and several cars passed over als body, killing him instantly. His body was terribly mangled, and his head crushed in.

SCHEDULE CHANGES SOON

Reports Indicate That Freight Business Is Increasing-New Party Rate.

Although no formal announcement has been made, it is said that the Scaboard Air Line will make important changes in its main line schedule early next month, when the tourist trains, known as the Florida Special, are discontinued for the season. The night continued for the season. The night train for the South may be put back nearer its former arrival time here. At present, the tourist specials running South are practically empty, except for local travel, and northbound trains are not having any Pulman space except for those who make early reservations.

Southern's Estimated Earnings.

According to a statement issued by Comptroller Plant, estimated earnings of the Southern Railway for the third week in March showed a decrease of $204.032 over the corresponding week of the preceding year.
